Liability Release

As in any sport, working with or riding horses may subject a participant or bystander to risks of injury or bodily harm.

I acknowledge the risks of and potential for risks in equine-assisted activities. However, I feel that the possible benefits to me and/or the participant are greater than the risk assumed and I assume full responsibility for any injury resulting from equine-assisted activities. The undersigned does hereby forever release, acquit, discharge and hold harmless Equul Access, Inc., its officers, directors, trustees, agents, employees, representatives, successors and assigns, and Marsha and/or Scott Anderson, for all manner of claims, demands and damages of every kind and nature whatsoever, now or in the future, on account of any personal injuries, physical or mental condition, property damage, known and unknown, and the treatment thereof, as a result of, or in any way emanating from, the acts of Equul Access, Inc., its officers, directors, trustees, agents, employees, representatives, successors and assigns, and Marsha and/or Scott Anderson, including but not limited to, any negligence, in rendering their equine-assisted services or in any way incidental thereto.

I have read this agreement and fully understand the contents.
